THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3817
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Talatoll, shielings 1400m SE of, Kintyre comprises two groups of shieling huts of pre-Improvement date. The huts represent the remains of temporary dwellings used on a seasonal basis by farm-workers who migrated to upland pastures with their cattle during the summer months. It is likely that these dense concentrations of features represent the remains of seasonal activity that took place over a considerable period of time. This monument occupies an upland location on three small hillocks in forestry clearings at approximately 140m above sea level. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan and consists of two separate polygons to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the post-and-wire fence on the W side of the westernmost group of shielings. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kilcalmonell and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No ARG10785 [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Talatoll, shielings 1.6Km SE of, Loch Ciaran as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 17 March 1976 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 30 March 1976.

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 14th day of June Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
