THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3818
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Ballygroggan, dun 175m SW of comprises a prehistoric defended settlement or dun, likely to date from the Iron Age (between 500 BC and AD 500). It survives as a low circular earthwork with a maximum diameter of approximately 25m. The enclosing bank varies in width from 1.8m to 4m and stands to a maximum height of 0.5m above the interior. The enclosed area is about 13.5m in diameter. The dun sits at around 115m above sea level and overlooks Machrahanish Bay. It is located on a N-facing spur part of the way down a hillside that slopes gently down to the sea from Skerry Fell Fad to the ESE. The area to be scheduled is circular on plan, measuring 40m in diameter, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The monument excludes the fence which lies immediately S and SE of the scheduled area. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Campbeltown and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Ballygroggan, dun 185m SW of as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 17 March 1976 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Argyll on 30 March 1976.

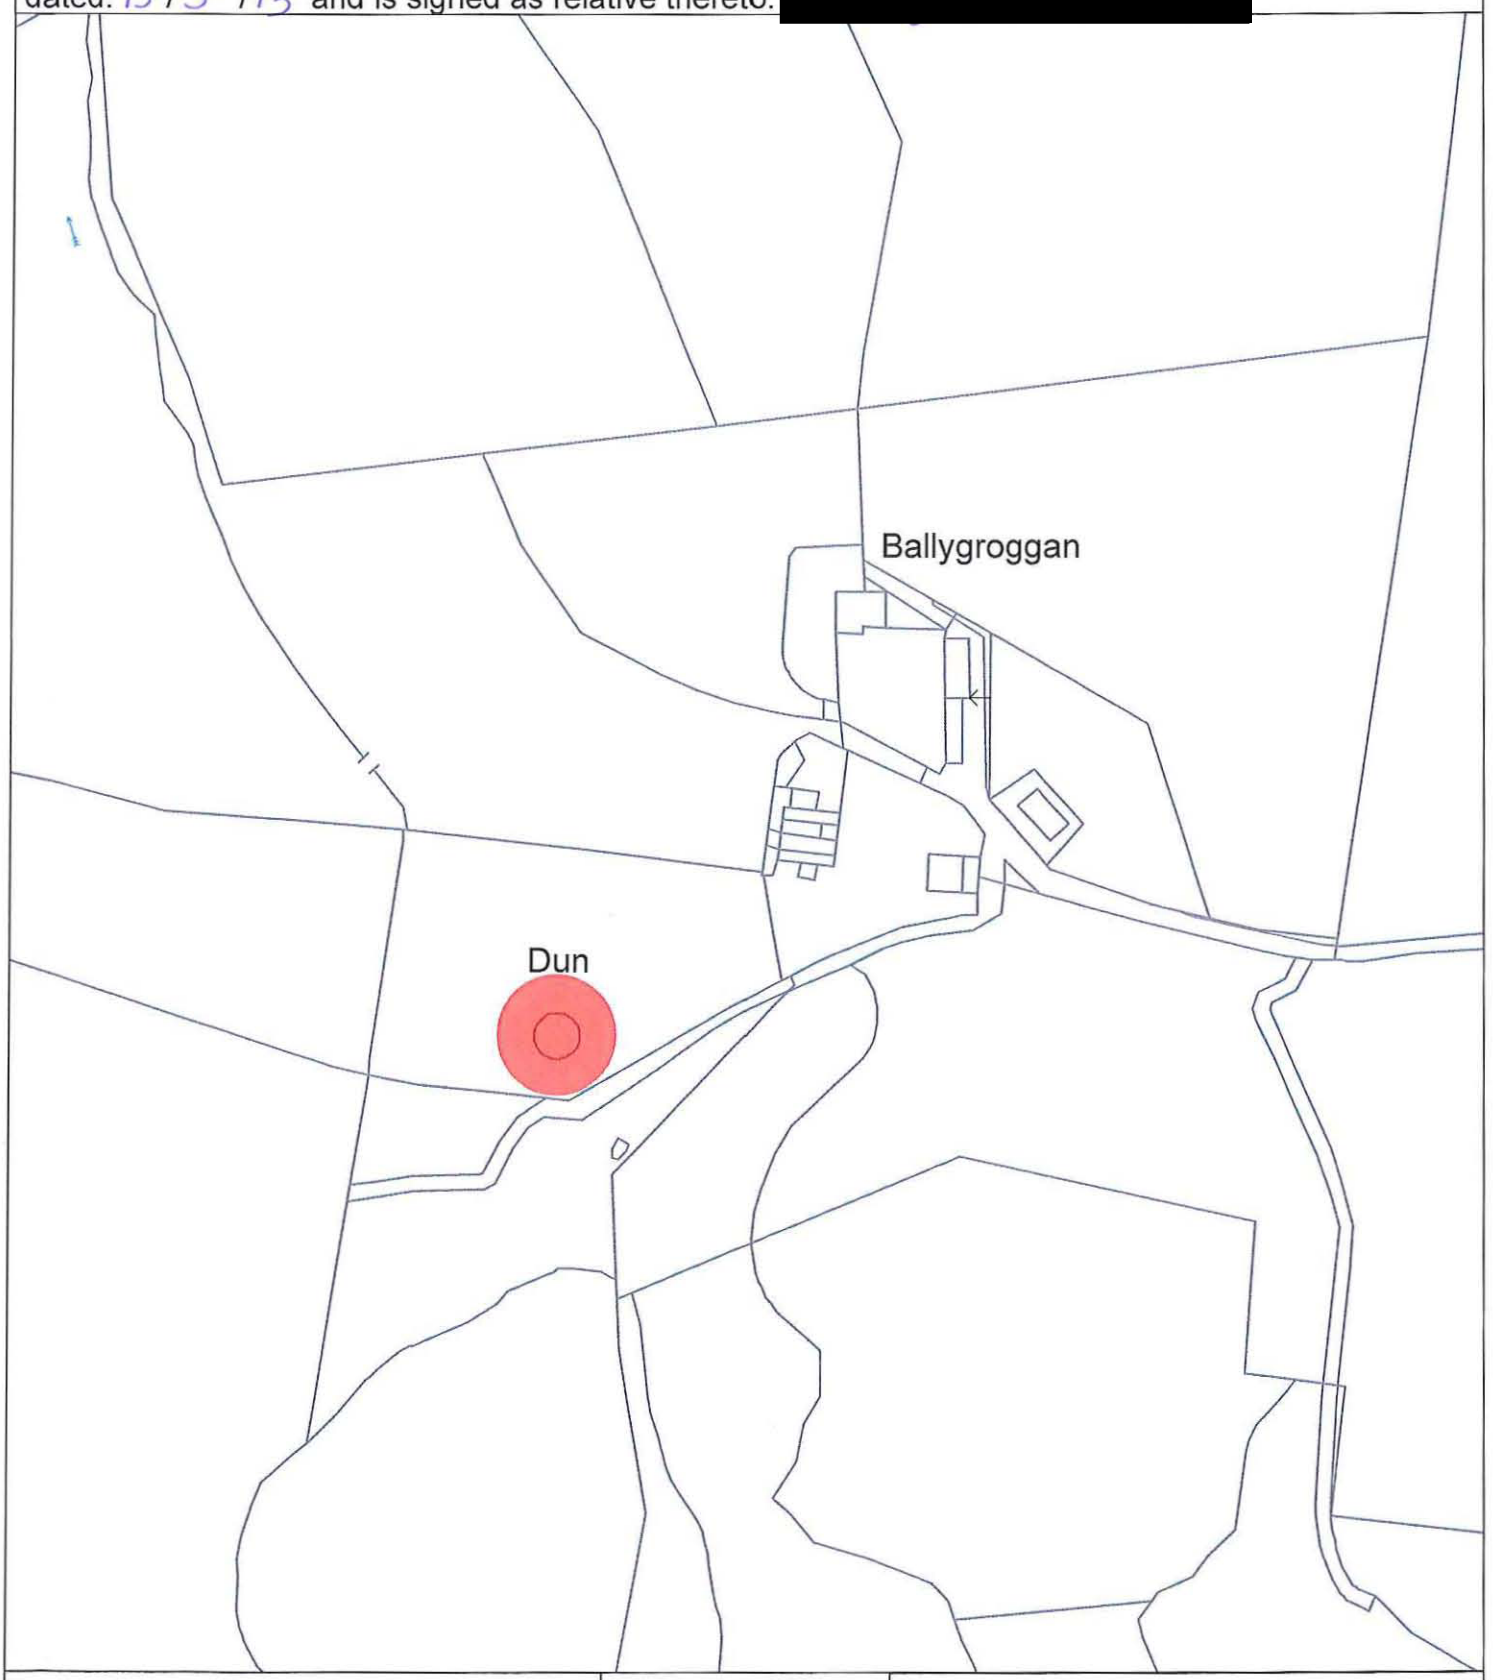

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 15th day of March Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
