

THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 3913
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Houston North Mound, 300m WSW of Greenhill Farm comprises the remains of a cairn, built probably in the late Neolithic or Bronze Age between 3000 and 1000 BC. It is visible as a low turf-covered mound and lies within a later circular plantation at about 60m above sea level. The cairn lies on the SE slopes of a plateau around 295m SW of Peter's Burn. There are extensive views to the south, south-east and south-west. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. Specifically excluded from the scheduling to allow for their maintenance are the aboveground elements of the post-and-wire fence and the stone dyke on the S side of the scheduled area. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Houston and Killellan and the County of Renfrew as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Deborah Mays, Deputy Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 11th day of February Two thousand and eleven, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
