THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 4108
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Hedderwick, enclosed and unenclosed settlements 290m NNW of comprises the remains of two adjacent prehistoric settlements, one enclosed and one unenclosed, dating probably to between 1200 BC and AD 400. The settlements lie buried beneath the ploughsoil and are visible as cropmarks captured on oblique aerial photographs. The settlement to the W is enclosed by a substantial ditch with an internal palisade trench. The ditch is U-shaped on plan with a probable entrance to the S, and encloses an area measuring at least 35m N-S by 30m transversely. The unenclosed settlement stretches up to 250m to the E of the enclosure and is represented by the remains of a number of roundhouses and other features. The settlements occupy a gentle N-facing slope on the coastal plain about 3km SW of Belhaven Bay, at around 20m OD. The scheduled area is irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. On the N side, the scheduled area extends up to, but excludes a post-and-wire fence and hedge. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Dunbar and the County of East Lothian as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects described in the Disposition [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Hedderwick, enclosures 350m NW of as referred to in the Certificate of Service of Notice by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 26 January 1978 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of East Lothian on 11 May 1978.

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 10th day of September Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
