THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Castle Craig, fort SSW of Pairney comprises a fort of prehistoric date. The monument lies in rough grassland on Castle Craig, a large rocky knoll. It comprises a fort defined on the S by the remains of two stone ramparts some 16m apart and 0.5m in height. The E, W and N boundaries of the fort are defined by the summits of the rocky slopes which make up the sides of the knoll. On the summit of the knoll, at the centre of the fort, is a stone-built enclosure measuring 28m in diameter, defined by a spread of stones and boulders about 4m wide. The area to be scheduled comprises the remains described and an area around them in which related material may be expected to be found. It is irregular, measuring 287m NNW-SSE and 177m at the widest point E-W. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Auchterarder and the County of Perth as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Frank James Lawrie, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 23rd day of February Two thousand and one, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
