THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 4386
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Tanlawhill Cottages, farmstead 865m E of comprises the remains of a farmstead, visible as a series of earthworks and probably dating to the pre-Improvement period. The earthworks reveal the presence of at least two rectangular buildings showing as turf-covered stone-wall footings, within an associated enclosure. The monument is located on a terrace on a moderate, NE-facing slope around 45m west of the Black Esk and around 175m above sea level. The area to be scheduled is irregular in plan, to include the visible remains and an area around them within which evidence relating to their creation and use may survive, as shown in red on the accompanying map. Specifically excluded from the schedule to allow for their maintenance are the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence that crosses the SE part of the scheduled area. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Westerkirk and the County of Dumfries as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 25 day of March Two thousand and ten, before this witness Mairi H Davies, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
