THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Cloddie Knowe, broch 370m SSW of Aith comprises a broch and its containing mound. The visible part of the mound is roughly circular in area and measures 32m EW by about 40m NS. It is surrounded by pasture under which are peat and silts and beneath which the mound may extend. Trial trenching suggests a broch about 15m across over substantial walls possibly containing cells, surrounded by remains of subsidiary structures. The area to be scheduled is a trapezoid with its north edge at the south edge of the tarred road from Bremmer to Greenmow, but excluding a rectangular area measuring 18.1m or thereabouts EW and 14.5m or thereabouts NS including the hall and a strip of ground 3.05m (10 ft) wide immediately to its east, south and west and a strip of ground measuring 6m NS or thereabouts between the hall and the road. With the exception of that area round the hall the area to be scheduled is bounded on the north by the south edge of the tarred road from Bremmer to Greenmow and measures 32m along the road edge with its NE corner 16m from the NE corner of the hall and its NW corner 8m from the NW corner of the hall; its east side is at right angles to the road and measures 50m NS and its west side is at right angles to the road and measures 38m NS. The southern side is 37m long running approximately WNW/ESE. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Cunningsburgh and the County of Shetland as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.
