THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Halterburn, farmsteads 400m ESE of comprises a farmstead of two phases, of the period before the agricultural improvements. The smaller, and probably later, phase of the monument comprises the remains of a three roomed cottage with which are associated an enclosure and a small outhouse, occupying the SW part of the site. This phase is typical of small crofts which occupied the area as late as 1770. The larger unit, which is probably earlier, consists of a trapezoidal enclosure measuring overall c35m E-W, by 30m transversely, surrounded by a bank which is accompanied on the N and E sides by an external ditch. No ditch and bank was required on the S side, where the burn provides the boundary. Within the enclosure are the remains of six buildings. The largest measures c10m by 7m and may be the remains of a large cottage or a tower. The area to be scheduled measures a maximum of 300m E-W by 150m transversely, the S boundary of the area being defined by the Witchcleuch Burn. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Yetholm and the County of Roxburgh as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
