THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Burnt Humbleton, fort comprises a fort of the Iron Age, some 1500 to 2500 years old, situated on the summit of Burnt Humbleton. The most prominent feature of the fort is a walled enclosure measuring c48m NW-SE by 30m transversely, occupying the highest part of the summit. Outside this enclosure fragments of walling are visible at either end of the knoll, probably representing an earlier enclosure. A further wall, which would have enclosed an area measuring c90m NW-SE by 58m, surrounds the inner enclosure. It is likely that there are at least three phases of construction visible in the defences. The area to be scheduled measures a maximum of 250m NW-SE by 180m transversely. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Yetholm and the County of Roxburgh as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects described in the [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
