THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 4748
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Beattock Hill, fort and unenclosed settlement 935m W of Braeside comprises the remains of a fort and an adjacent unenclosed settlement, both likely to date to later prehistory. The fort is oval in shape and is defended by a ruined stone wall with external bank. It has an entrance to the south-west and contains the remains of at least one roundhouse. The unenclosed settlement lies to the south and comprises the remains of at least three roundhouses visible as low earthworks. The fort is located in pasture on the summit of Beattock Hill at about 260m above sea level, in a commanding position overlooking the Annan Valley to the east. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described and an area around within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence crossing the monument from north to south to allow for its maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kirkpatrick-Juxta and the County of Dumfries as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

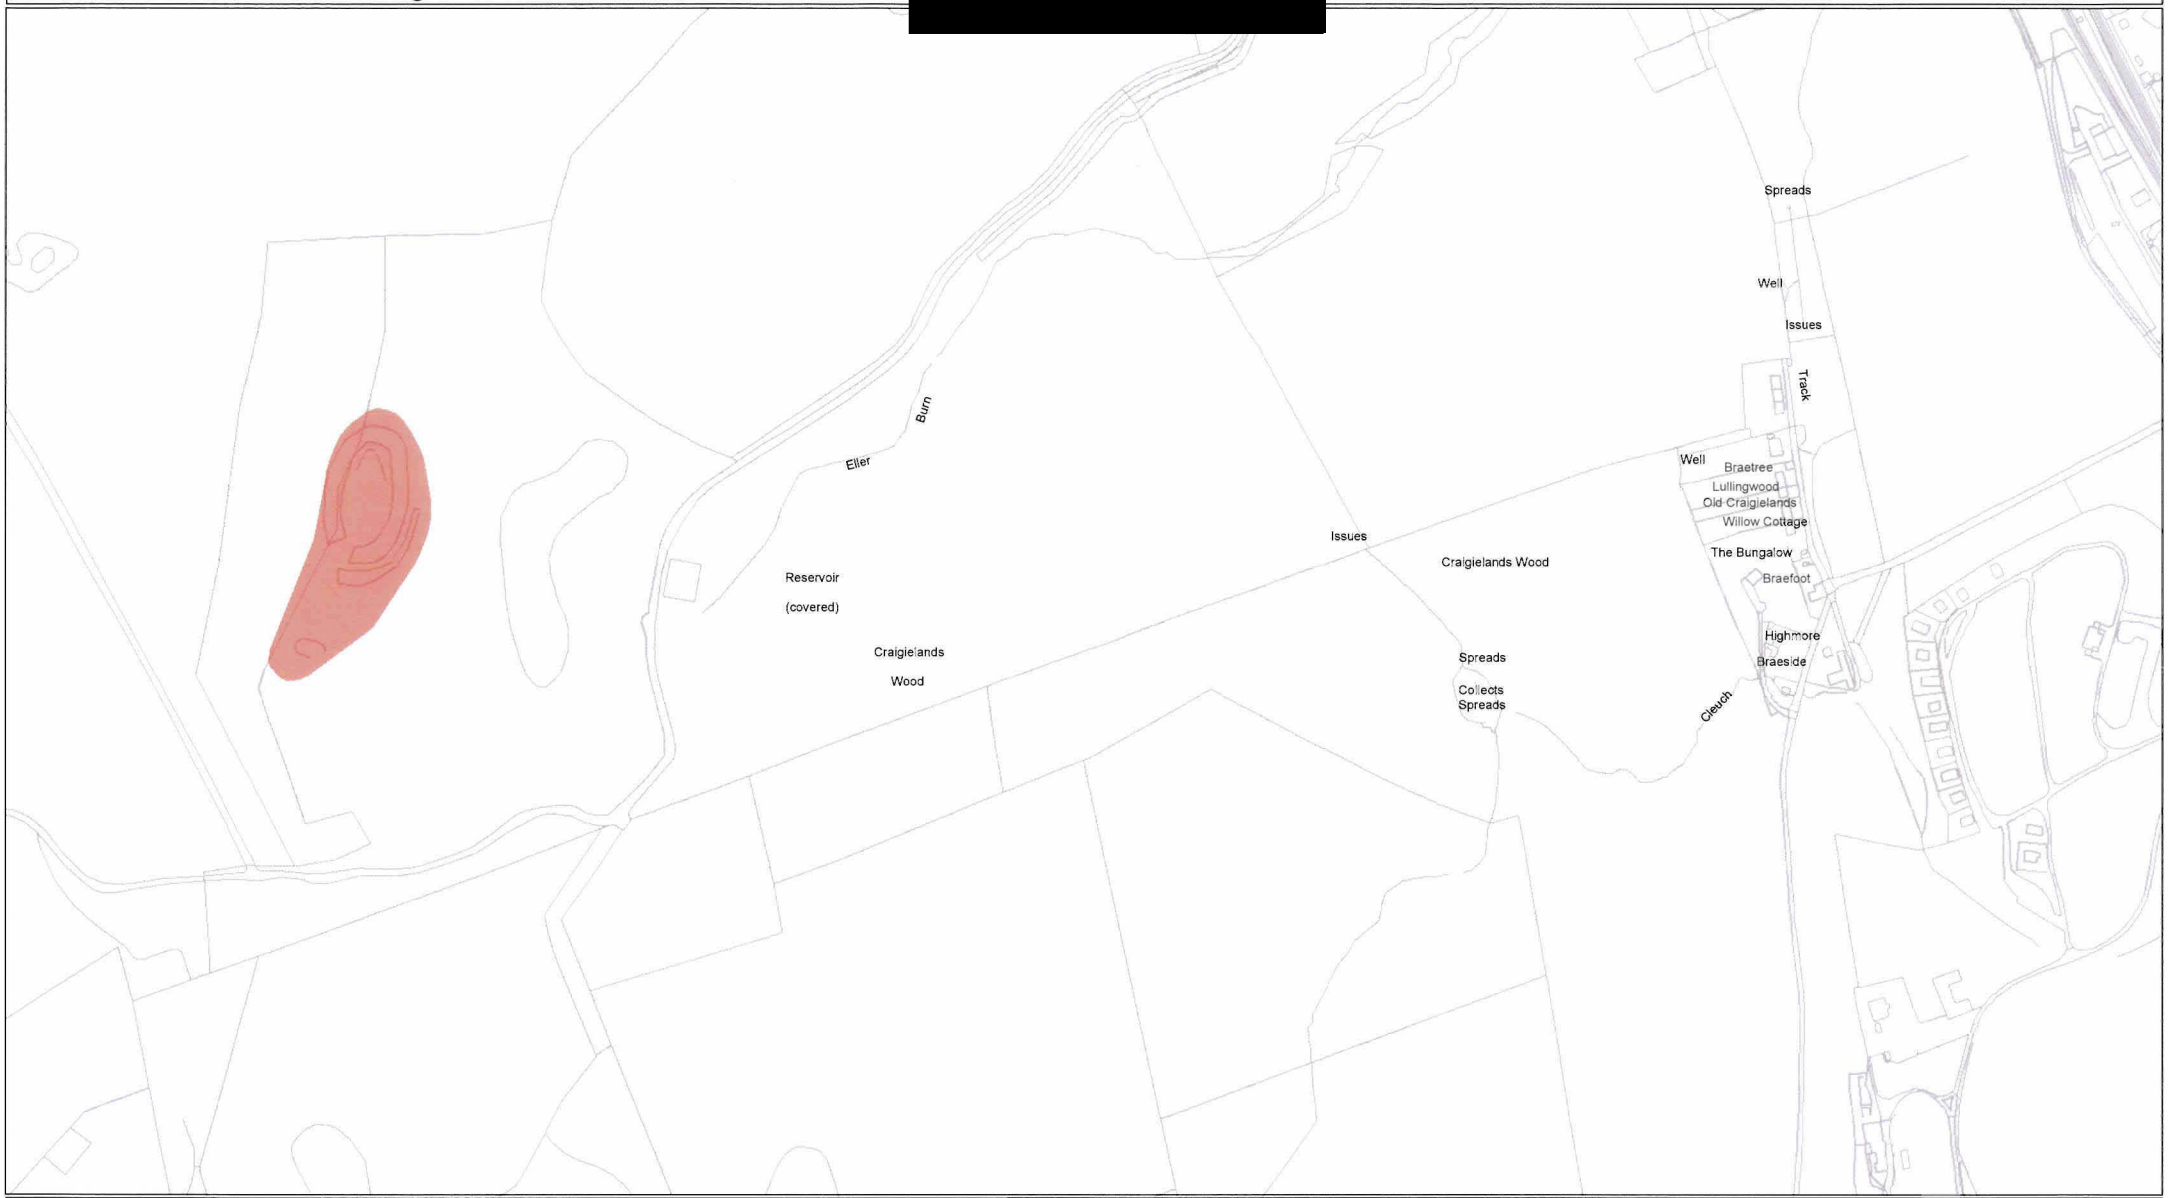

Subscribed by Deborah Mays, Deputy Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 26 day of March Two thousand and eleven, before this witness Victoria Murray, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
