THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Kinnaird, settlements and field systems 1500m NE of comprises the extensive remains of settlement and agriculture of the Bronze Age. There are the remains of at least 32 circular houses (hut circles), most of them well preserved; the majority stand alone, the others are in complex groups of two or three. There are also the remains of a double-walled "Dalrulzian" type house. The hut circles vary in diameter from 9m to 17m. The houses are associated with extensive and well preserved field systems defined by low banks and field clearance cairns, some of which are very substantial. The area to be scheduled measures a maximum of 1250m NNW-SSE and 800m transversely, as marked on the attached map, to include the settlements and field systems and an area between and around them in which traces of activity associated with their use will survive; the NW boundary is formed in part by the Allt na Cachailleith, the SE boundary is formed in part by the Kinnaird Burn. The fabric of the modern track which crosses the area, and of the existing fences and walls is specifically excluded from the scheduling. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Moulin and the County of Perth as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
