THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Clochanshiels, cairns, houses and field systems 500m ESE of comprises a well preserved round house, a round house stance, clearance cairns and low banks on a gentle north facing slope. The house measures 8.5m across internally. The house stance nearby is a platform measuring 11.3m in diameter. Below them is a group of more than a dozen clearance cairns some of which appear to define small fields. 200m to the east is a series of low banks running up and down slope with traces of others running cross slope, and clearance cairns again tending to form field boundaries. Some 200m upslope to the south is a tight group of low parallel banks running cross slope and defining strips of field. The area to be scheduled has been under trees at some time but is now rough pasture. It is in two parts, containing between them the monuments referred to above and an area around the monuments in which traces of activities associated with their use may survive, separated by a track; the part to the west of the track is bounded by it and measures up to 175m NW/SE by up to 150m NE/SW and the part to the east of the track is bounded by it and measures up to 150m NS by up to 250m EW. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Fetteresso and the County of Kincardine as shown (I) hatched in red and (II) outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which regarding the is hereby included in the schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under Section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.
