THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 4890
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Kaim Knowe, farmstead 850m E of Sourhope comprises the remains of a scooped enclosure and two probable buildings forming a pre-Improvement farmstead dating to between AD 400 and AD 1850. The upstanding remains are visible as a group of low, grass-covered scarps and banks on the W side of Kaim Knowe. Rig and furrow cultivation remains lie around the enclosure on relatively level ground to the E and S. The farmstead is located at the top of a NW-facing slope at about 290m above sea level, facing away from the Kaim Burn, which lies on the far side of the hill about 150m to the S. The scheduled area is irregular in plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. On part of the E side, the scheduled area extends up to but excludes a post-and-wire fence. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Morebattle and the County of Roxburgh as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Kaim Knowe, farmsteads and field systems 900m ESE of Sourhope as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 29 October 1990 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Roxburgh on 12 March 1991.

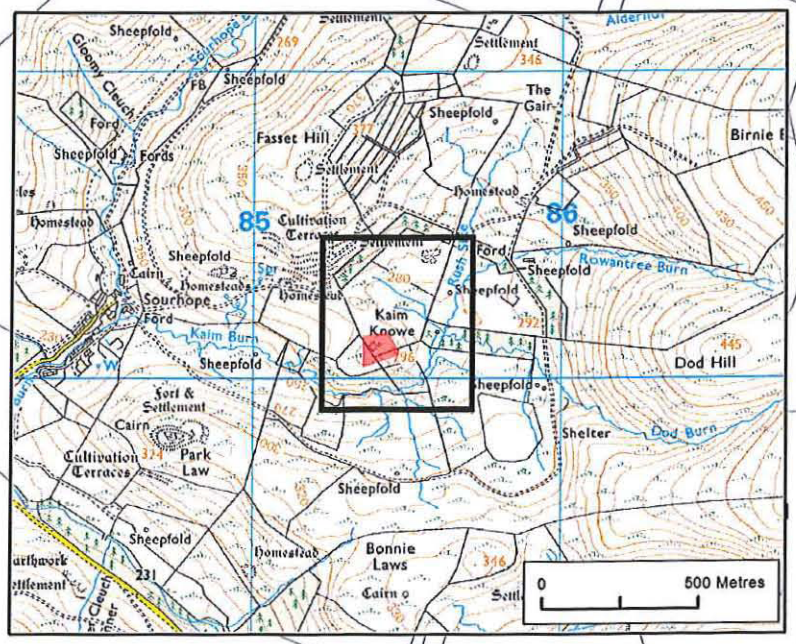

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 31 day of August Two thousand and fifteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
