THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Dun na Buail'uachdraich, dun comprises the remains of a later prehistoric fortified settlement, a dun, situated on a rise in marshy ground but prior to drainage on a small loch island. The dun is 17m in average diameter, measured over drystone walls which are up to 4m thick. Much of the northern circuit of walling has been reduced to its foundations, but in the S it stands up to 1.4m high. The entrance appears to have been in the NE. The area to be scheduled is 35m in diameter, to include the dun and the area immediately around it, within which other remains may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of South Uist and the County of Inverness as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
