THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Little Larg, cairn 2700m WSW of comprises this cairn, Cairn Kenny, which lies on the N end of Cairnscarrow 530m N of the OS triangulation station. It is visible in the bottom of a depression in the peat and is about 17m in diameter but has been reduced to little more than a rim of cairn material enclosing a scatter of stones. This would have been one of the most prominent of the Lingdowey group of cairns. It has been badly robbed but there is sufficient material surviving beneath the peat to protect pre-cairn features including buried soils containing evidence of pre-cairn land-use. The area proposed for scheduling is a 20m radius circle based on the centre of the cairn. The monument, which lies in the Parish of New Luce and the County of Wigtown as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects described in the [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
