THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Hill of Logie, settlement and field system comprises an unenclosed settlement and associated remains of a field system of the Bronze Age or Iron Age, some 2000 to 3000 years old. The settlement comprises the remains of four stone walled circular house stances between 8m and 14m in diameter, one of which has an unusual annexe on its NE side. Three of the circles are grouped near the N end of the field system, the fourth lies at the S end. The field system comprises the well preserved remains of a number of clearance cairns and, at the E end of the system, a low bank standing some 0.5m high. Some later settlement is indicated by recent rigs and a possible rectangular structure at the N end of the complex. An area measuring a maximum of 320m N-S by 130m transversely is proposed for scheduling, to include the settlement and the field system. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Ellon and the County of Aberdeen as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms
