THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Dry Slack, farmstead and enclosure comprises the remains of a farmstead of unusual design, dating from the period before the modern agricultural improvements, overlying an enclosure which is probably the remains of a prehistoric settlement. The area to be scheduled is irregular in plan, measuring a maximum of 240m NNW-SSE by 320m WNW-ESE, specifically excluding the modern feed-store, 7m square, which lies on the S edge of the prehistoric enclosure. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Morebattle and the County of Roxburgh as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
