THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Garleffin, standing stones and mesolithic settlement comprises a stone setting at Garleffin which lies on the 50 foot raised beach terrace to the S of the River Stinchar. The area round the stones has produced a large number of late mesolithic artefacts which are probably indicative of settlement and related activities. Several of the stones have recently been felled and removed. The area to be scheduled includes the upper river terrace, defined on its W by the stream, on the E by the public road, extending S into the E side of the garden of the house known as Druidslea, but excluding the main road, house and drive. This area includes the original settings of the stones and an area around in which traces of associated activities may survive, as well as an important part of area which has produced mesolithic settlement evidence. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Ballantrae and the County of Ayr as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
