THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Tullypowrie Burn, chapel, cross slab, farmstead and mill comprises a small deserted settlement centred on the remains of an old chapel, situated 260m NW of Tullypowrie farmstead, on the W side of the Tullypowrie Burn. The post-medieval farmstead consists of five houses, a corn drying kiln, dry mill dam, and the remains of the chapel mill. The area to be scheduled is irregular, measuring a maximum of 130m N-S by 90m E-W, to include the above mentioned structures but specifically excluding the track passing between. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Logierait and the County of Perth as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
