THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Creag Madaidh Mor, mine 1050m WNW of Glenmoine comprises a disused copper mine, now consisting of a store house, spoil heap and two adits, is situated on the NW flank of Creag Madaidh Mor, and is largely covered with a forestry plantation. The mine was 'wrought upon for some years' in the 18th century, when it belonged to the Campbells of Kilmartin, but it was abandoned 'some time' before 1793. The area to be scheduled is rectangular on plan and measures 120m from NW to SE by 55m transversely to include the building, all associated mine workings and an area around in which associated remains may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kilmartin and the County of Argyll as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
