THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 5523
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Meall Darroch, settlement, 90m SSW of Windy View comprises the remains of a deserted rural settlement, which was occupied in the 18th to 19th century and abandoned in 1843. The settlement is situated E of Tarbert and immediately SW of a modern housing development, in rough ground on a rocky terrace at about 100m above sea level. The area to be scheduled is irregular in shape. It includes the settlement and associated remains, and an area around them within which traces of related activities may survive. On the NE edge, the scheduled area extends 1m beyond the visible remains, but specifically excludes the aboveground modern garden features and hard standings to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kilcalmonnel and the County of Argyll as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 7th day of February Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
