THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Killean, church, burial ground and tombstones, 1270m SW of Carn Ban comprises the remains of the medieval church of the extensive parish of Killean or Torosay and its burial ground, which are located about 250m from the E shore of Loch Spelve near to a deep water anchorage. The church was dedicated to St John and first comes on record in 1393; in 1561 it was listed among the former revenues of the abbot of Iona. It probably became derelict during the seventeenth century. There are a number of important graveslabs and a carved window head within the area. The area to be scheduled measures 50m from NW to SE by 45m transversely, to include the church, burial ground, graveslabs and an area around in which associated remains are likely to survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Torosay and the County of Argyll as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
