THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Smithwood, bastle house 900m SW of Daerside, comprises the remains of a bastle house, a type of fortified farmhouse dating from the late 16th or early 17th century, together with nearby buildings, enclosures and field systems, typical of a late medieval rural settlement. The area to be scheduled is irregular, measuring a maximum of 175m E-W by 124m N-S, to include the bastle house and associated buildings, enclosures and field systems. The modern fence on the E side of the site is excluded from the scheduling to allow for its routine maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Crawford and the County of Lanark as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Sheenagh Adams, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 6th day of March Two thousand and three, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
