THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Cnoc nan Dubh Leitire, meeting place 1600m S of, Mull comprises a site which has been identified as the former site of the principal fairs and markets of Mull, held there in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, if not earlier. It is situated in a forestry clearing immediately NE of a conspicuous flat-topped rock outcrop. About 50 turf-walled buildings are distributed in 2 main groups: the smaller occupies ground sloping NE from the rock outcrop; the remainder are dispersed over the summit of a low knoll separated by marshy ground from the smaller group. The area to be scheduled measure 195m from SW to NE by 125m transversely, to include the fairground and an area around in which associated remains may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kilninian and Kilmore and the County of Argyll as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
