THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Costerton, fort 800m E of comprises the remains of a later prehistoric inland promontory fort represented by cropmarks visible on oblique aerial photographs. The area to be scheduled encompasses the defences and interior of the fort together with an area around the visible features in which traces of associated activity may be expected to survive. The area is irregular in shape with maximum dimensions of 300m NE-SW by 150m, excluding areas of recent tree-planting and all surface drains. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Humbie and the County of East Lothian as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
