THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 5834
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as 8 Eweford Cottages, enclosure 265m S of comprises the remains of a prehistoric enclosure that probably surrounded a settlement. The enclosure ditch is visible as cropmarks captured on oblique aerial photographs. The enclosure dates probably to between 500 BC and AD 200. The cropmarks show that the enclosure ditch is some 2-5m wide and defines an approximately square area measuring about 140m N-S by at least 120m transversely. The ditch on the W side is straight whereas that to the S has a shallow angle 90m from its W end. The E side of the enclosure is not visible as a cropmark, probably because a modern track used to run here. There is an indication of an entrance at the enclosure's SW corner. The enclosure lies on the East Lothian coastal plain on fairly level ground at around 25m OD, immediately S of the modern A1 trunk road. The scheduled area is irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes a pair of electricity cables that run immediately N of the scheduled area at an approximate depth of 1m-1.5m together with the overlying soil above the cables. Along its NE edge the scheduling extends up to but excludes a post-and-wire fence. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence that crosses the scheduled area. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Dunbar and the County of East Lothian as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Eweford Cottages, enclosure 200m S of as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 16 November 1993 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of East Lothian on 2 February 1994.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 13th day of December Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
