THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 5837
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Little Pinkerton, settlement 110m N of comprises the remains of an enclosed prehistoric settlement visible as cropmarks captured on oblique aerial photographs. The settlement probably dates to between 500 BC and AD 200. The cropmarks show that the settlement is enclosed by a substantial ditch, some 3-4m wide. The enclosed area is almost square in shape and measures around 76m E-W by 66m transversely. A dark cropmark towards the centre of the enclosure appears to represent an internal structure, probably a sunken house or yard. The settlement occupies an area of relatively level ground immediately NE of the modern farm of Little Pinkerton at around 60m OD. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Dunbar and the County of East Lothian as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Little Pinkerton, enclosure as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 22 November 1993 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of East Lothian on 24 January 1994.

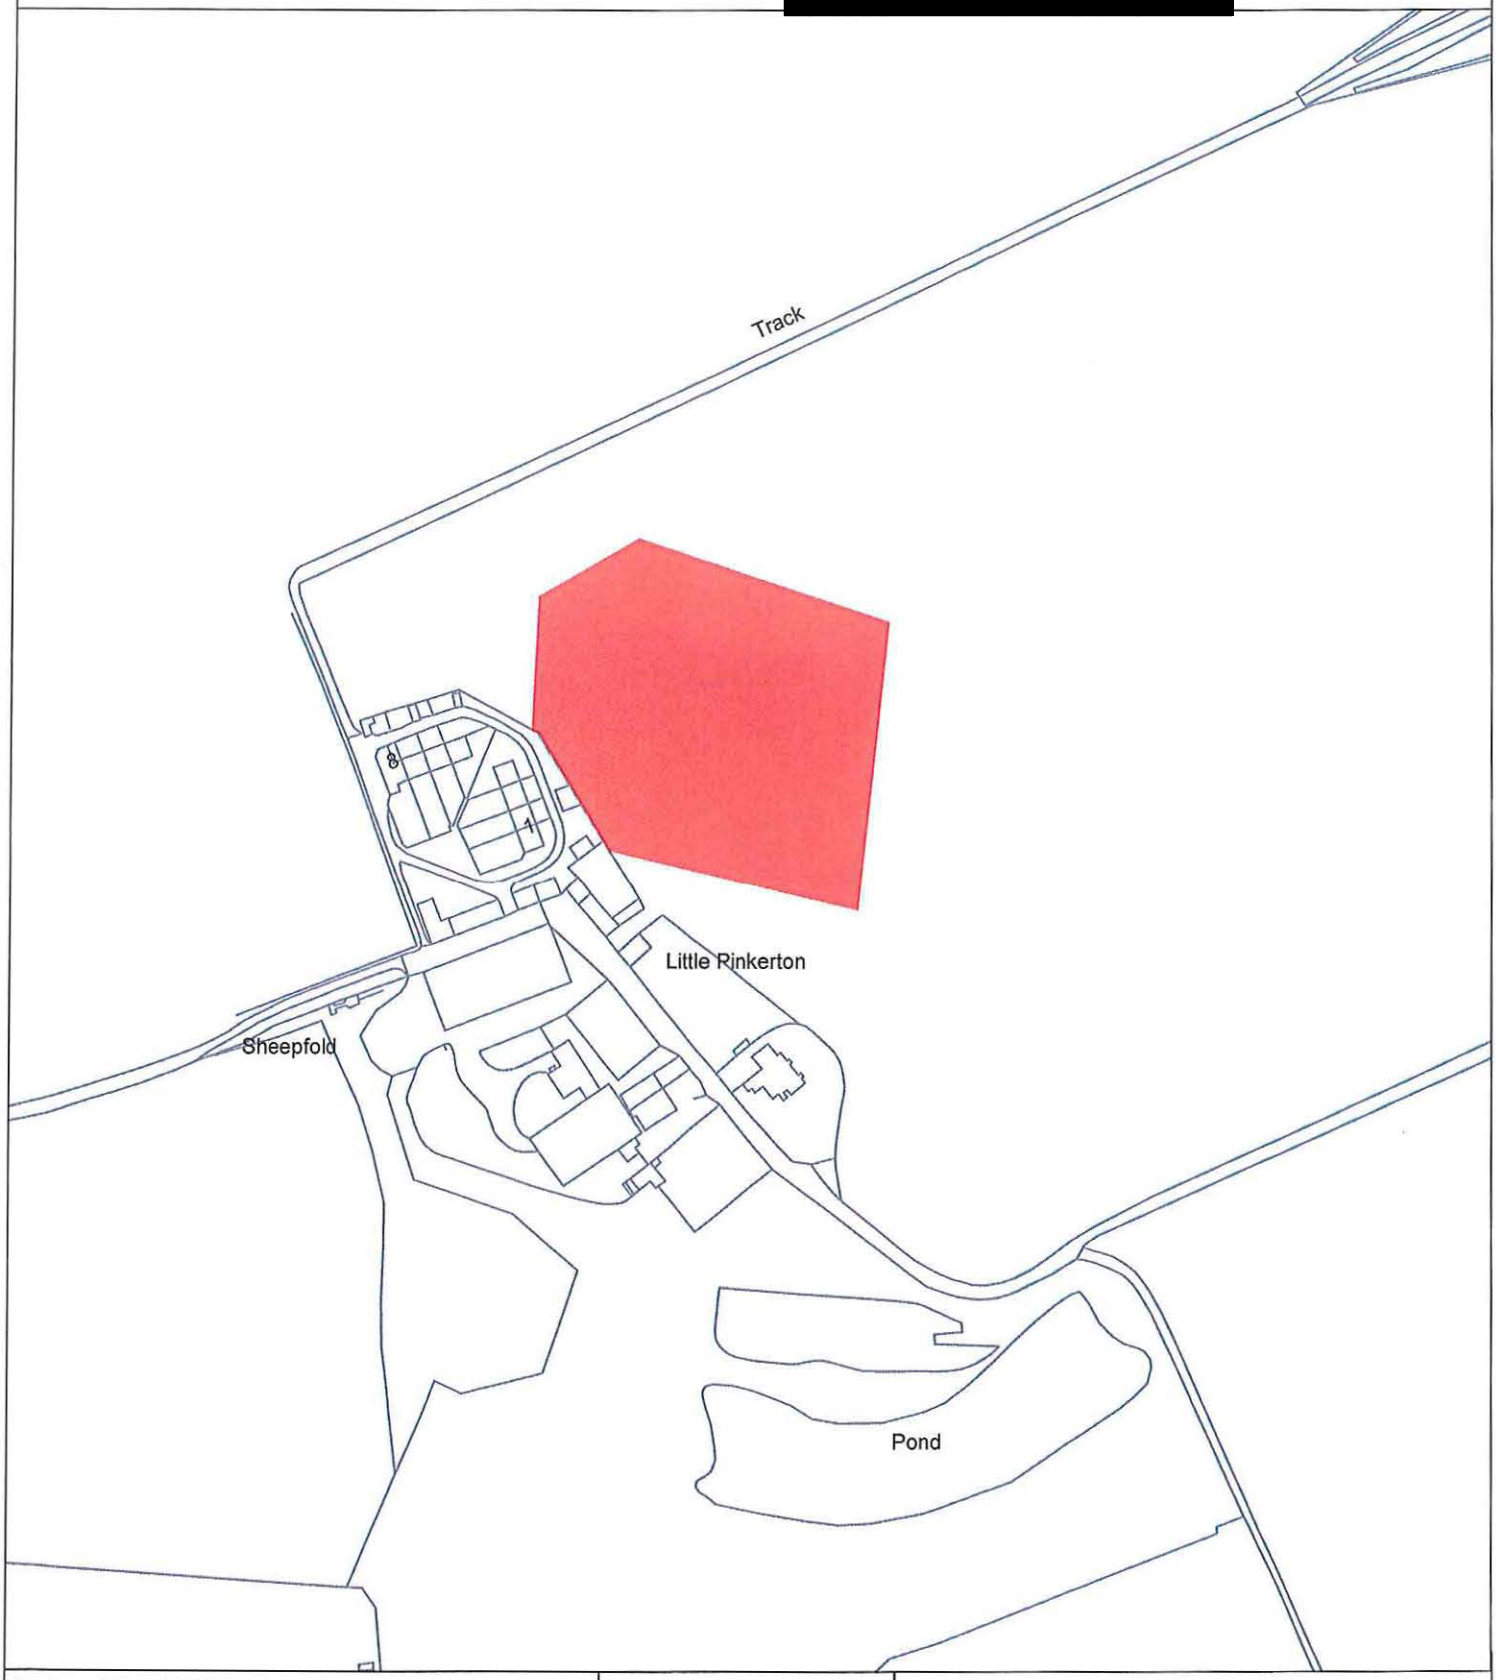

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 10th day of May Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
