

THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 5916
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Newbarns, unenclosed settlements 190m SSE of and 245m ESE of comprises the remains of two unenclosed settlements. The remains lie buried beneath the ploughsoil and are visible as cropmarks captured on oblique aerial photographs. The remains comprise roundhouses and associated features dating to between 1800 BC and AD 400, but there is also evidence for sub-rectangular structures that are probably of early historic or medieval date. The monument lies between 20m and 25m OD, on a broad ridge of higher ground that rises above the Keilor Burn to the S. The site overlooks the coast about 600m to the E. Two areas are scheduled, both irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and areas around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Inverkeilor and the County of Angus as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects described in is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Newbarns, settlement SE of as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 22 February 1994 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Angus on 24 March 1994.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 23rd day of January Two thousand and Fifteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
