THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 5918
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Raesmill Burn, unenclosed settlement 300m ESE of Anniston Mill comprises the remains of an unenclosed settlement dating to between 1800 BC and AD 400. The settlement lies buried beneath the ploughsoil and is visible as cropmarks captured on oblique aerial photographs. Numerous dark crescent- and disc-shaped marks indicate the locations of roundhouses, some immediately adjacent to one another but potentially representing structures of different dates. Other curvilinear cropmarks indicate the potential presence of souterrains. The monument lies at about 25m OD on a ridge of higher ground between Keilor Burn and Raesmill Burn. The scheduled area is irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of all electricity poles. On the SE side, the scheduled area extends up to but excludes a post-and-wire fence. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Inverkeilor and the County of Angus as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Anniston Mill, unenclosed settlement 250m ESE of as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 22 February 1994 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Angus on 24 March 1994.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 19th day of November Two thousand and Fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
