THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 5949
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Sandersdean, enclosures and ring ditch 160m N of comprises the remains of an enclosed settlement and a ring ditch house, both dating probably from the later Bronze Age or Iron Age (between 1200 BC and AD 400). The settlement and house are visible as cropmarks captured on oblique aerial photographs. The NW quadrant of a single-ditched oval-shaped enclosure is visible. The surviving portion measures 60m N-S by 60m transversely, but it is truncated by a road at the S end, and a field boundary along its E side. A linear ditch runs E-W across the interior and may represent a contemporary internal subdivision. The ring ditch house lies 50m N of the enclosure. It is approximately 20m in diameter, with an E-facing entrance, and a circular feature is visible in the interior. A small circular enclosure, measuring 6m N-S, is positioned adjacent to the ring ditch house on its N side. The monument lies within a low-lying valley 3km SE of Haddington, at a height of c 70m OD, directly adjacent to the W bank of the Bearford Burn. The scheduled area is irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of telegraph poles and post-and-wire fences. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Haddington and the County of East Lothian as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Sandersdean, enclosures and ring ditch as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 7 March 1994 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of East Lothian on 11 April 1994.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 28th day of November Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
