THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Elliesheugh, farmstead and field system comprises the remains of the farm of Elliesheugh, and cultivation remains in the form of terraces. A grange belonging to Kelso Abbey at "Elisheugh" is recorded. The remains consist of several elements: a large turf banked enclosure measuring 38m NE to SW by 29m with two small structures within the NW angle, the foundations of two rectangular buildings measuring 18m by 5.4m and 18m by 6.4m respectively, a further rectangular enclosure containing two smaller rectangular buildings and, just below the crest of the hill, a two compartment structure measuring 19m by 11m, probably the remains of a large kiln. To the S are the remains of cultivation terraces which may be broadly contemporary with the farm. The area to be scheduled measures 325m N to S by a maximum of 150m transversely, to include the farmstead and part of the field system, and an area around them in which traces of activity associated with their use may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Morebattle and the County of Roxburgh as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
