THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Kirkton, homestead moat 350m W of comprises the remains of a homestead moat of medieval date surviving as a series of earthworks in an arable field. The homestead moat appears to represent the early settlement of Brigton referred to in 13th Century records and represents a high-status residence of that period. The area to be scheduled encompasses the visible features and an area around them in which traces of associated activity may be expected to survive. It is circular with a diameter of 90m. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kinnettles and the County of Angus as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
