THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Balbridie, enclosure 300m S of comprises an enclosure, probably of the later prehistoric or early historic period. It appears on aerial photographs of an arable field as marks in a cereal crop; experience shows that further remains are likely to survive around and within the visible marks in areas not susceptible to cropmarks. The area to be scheduled is rectangular and measures 120m from W of N to E of S by 80m, to include the enclosures and an area around them in which further remains associated with their construction and use may survive. All modern fences within the area are specifically excluded from the scheduling. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Durris and the County of Kincardine as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
