The monument known as Leacann Ghlasa, peat stores, buildings and trackway comprises the remains of a group of peat stores and several buildings, dating from the 17th and 18th centuries. The structures are aligned along the embanked and braided trackway that climbs the S-facing slope of Leacann Ghlasa. There are at least twenty-four open-ended peat store structures, one enclosure and three buildings situated along the track and above the head-dyke, on the steeper slopes of the hill.
