THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Woodhead House comprises the remains of Woodhead, or Woodhead House. The area to be scheduled is approximately rectangular on plan. It is limited by the road edge on the SE and extends 8m from the house to the NE and 10m from the house to the SW and NW, to include the house and the ranges later attached to it, the barmkin, and an area in which evidence for the activities associated with the occupation of the house may be expected to be found. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Campsie and the County of Stirling as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
