THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Balharvie Moss, cross-incised stone 420m NNE of Miller's Loch comprises a large natural boulder, partially dressed on its N face, on which is carved a cross and a symbolic fish. The carvings are probably Early Christian or medieval in date. The area to be scheduled is centred on the boulder and is circular in shape. It encompasses an area of radius 15m around the boulder, to afford protection to the boulder and its carvings and to any surviving traces of human activity nearby. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Falkland and the County of Fife as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
