THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Caledonian Canal, Corpach to Banavie comprises that stretch of inland waterway known as the Caledonian Canal running east and north-east from the locks and basin at Corpach, on Loch Linnhe, to the south (or bottom) end of the flight of locks at Banavie (otherwise known as Neptune's Staircase). The area to be scheduled includes all the canal in water and the strip of ground extending up to a maximum of 30m from the water on either side and containing the towpaths and embankments and any associated capstans, bollards, mooring hooks, mile posts, weirs and overflows. The scheduling excludes the road swing bridge at Banavie, the railway swing bridge and its associated signal box also at Banavie, as well as all modern moorings, pontoons, slipways, walls and fences, power cables, lampposts and other street furniture. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Kilmallie and the County of Inverness as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
