THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Kirkapol, church 200m NW of Lodge Hotel, Tiree comprises a roofless church together with part of its associated burial ground, containing several late medieval sculptured stones. The area to be scheduled is a rectangle lacking part of its NW corner and measuring 34m E-W by 30m N-S, centred on the church. It extends as far as the stream to the NW and extends approximately 10m from the church in every other direction. It includes the church, part of the burial ground (including the late medieval graveslabs and cross-shaft), and an area of ground in which it is likely that evidence survives for the origins of the burial ground and church and for their construction and use. The scheduling excludes those lairs for which burial rights still exist. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Tiree and the County of Argyll as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto

in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.
