THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 6736
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as North Straiton, unenclosed settlement 140m N of comprises the remains of an unenclosed prehistoric settlement, visible as cropmarks captured on oblique aerial photographs. The cropmarks indicate the positions of two roundhouses and a probable souterrain. Two other large features indicate additional souterrains or roundhouses and there is also a scatter of pits in the vicinity. The probable souterrain indicates that the settlement was occupied in the late Iron Age, between 250 BC and AD 400, but occupation may have begun significantly before this and may also have continued into the early historic period (between AD 400 and AD 850). The settlement lies at about 35m OD, on relatively level ground above the Motray Water to the N. The scheduled area is irregular on plan to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. The scheduled area specifically excludes the above-ground elements of a stone field wall. On the E side of the S field the scheduled area extends up to, but excludes, a post-and-wire fence. The scheduling also excludes the above-ground elements of electricity poles. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Logie and the County of Fife as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as North Straiton, souterrains and unenclosed settlement N of as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 13 October 1997 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Fife on 3 February 1998.

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 22 day of August Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
