THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 6743
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as North Straiton, unenclosed settlements 605m W of & 790m WNW of comprises the remains of an unenclosed prehistoric settlement, visible as cropmarks captured on oblique aerial photographs. The cropmarks indicate the positions of at least 14 roundhouses and an extensive scatter of pits. The houses include one probable ring-ditch roundhouse of a type used between the middle Bronze Age and the later Iron Age (between around 1800 BC and AD 400), as well as several scooped houses of a type used in the Iron Age and early historic periods (between 800 BC and AD 850). The settlement lies at about 35m OD, on relatively level ground above the Motray Water to the NW and N. The two areas to be scheduled are irregular on plan to include the remains described above and areas around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment may survive. All post-and-wire fences at the boundaries of the scheduled areas are excluded from the scheduling. Where a post-and-wire fence crosses part of the SE scheduled area, its above-ground elements are excluded from the scheduling to allow for its maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Logie and the County of Fife as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as North Straiton, unenclosed settlement 600m W of as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 13 October 1997 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Fife on 3 February 1998.

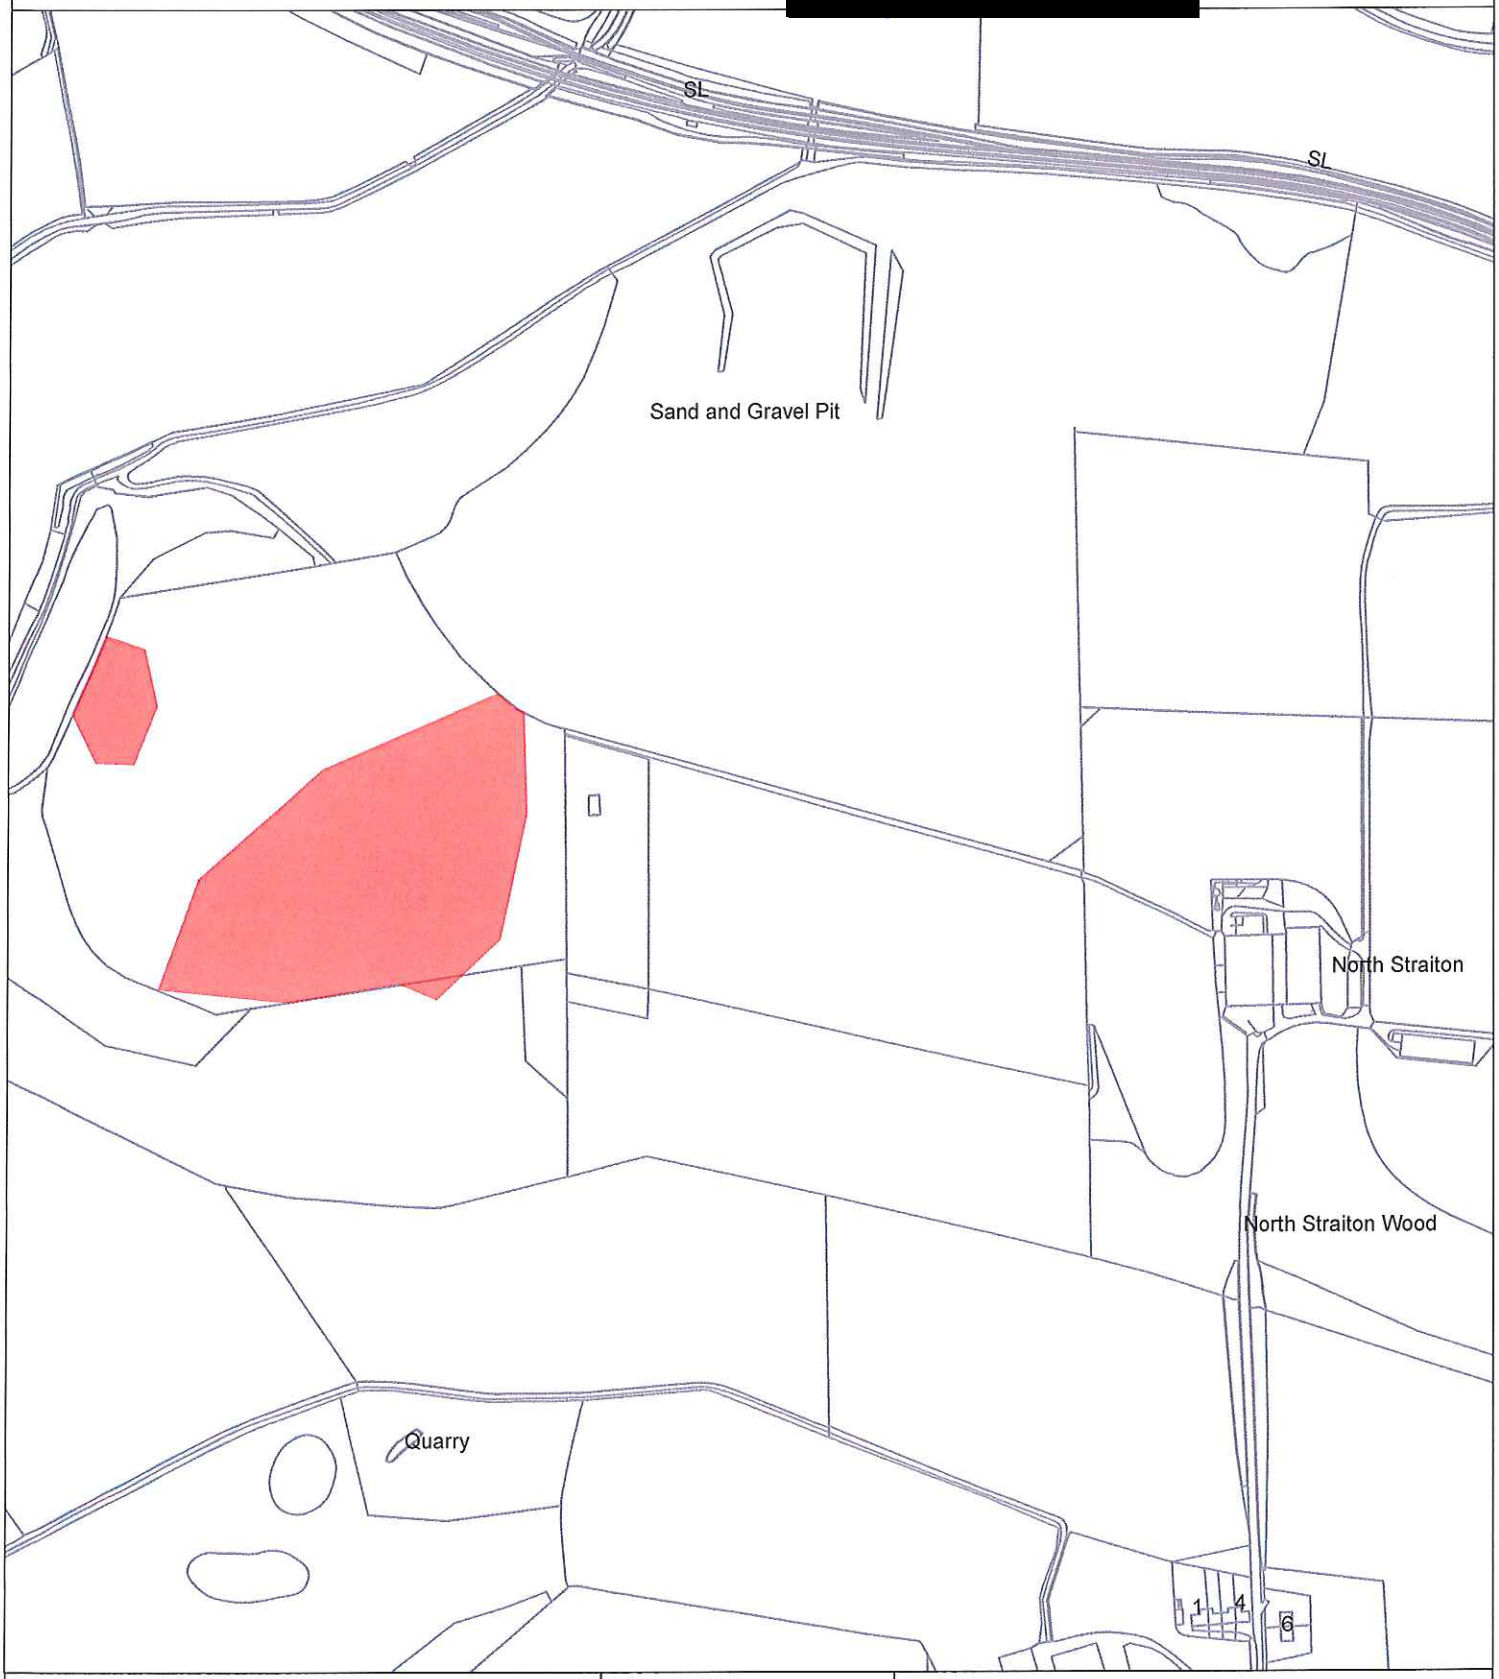

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 22 day of August Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
