The monument known as Antonine Wall, Cleddans Burn to Peel Glen Road comprises a section of the Antonine Wall which runs up the sides and across the top of Hutcheson Hill. To the W, the scheduled area is defined by the W edge of the path that extends N from Monymusk Place. To the E the area is defined by Peel Glen Road. The N boundary extends 25m beyond the N edge of the Antonine Wall ditch, to include the upcast mound and an area beyond in which traces of activities associated with the construction and use of the monument may survive. The S boundary extends 20m beyond the position of the S edge of the rampart to include Roman-period deposits which are likely to survive in this area. At least part of the military way may also lie within this 20m zone.
