THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 7095
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Cowbakie Hill, roundhouse 40m N of 28 Comerton Place comprises the remains of a roundhouse dating to the later prehistoric period (sometime between around 1800 BC and AD 400). It lies beneath the topsoil and is visible as cropmarks captured on oblique aerial photographs. The remains comprise a ring-ditch approximately 1m wide and 15m in external diameter. There appears to be an entrance on the SW. A dark cropmark within the ring-ditch is likely to indicate surviving internal deposits. The monument is located within former arable farmland towards the crest of the S-facing slope of Cowbakie Hill, at approximately 35m above sea level. The scheduled area is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence for the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling extends up to but excludes the fence to the S of the monument. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Leuchars and the County of Fife as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No FFE4 [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Comerton Home, ring-ditch and souterrains 730m ENE as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 9 January 1998 and recorded in the Land Register for Scotland under Title No FFE4.

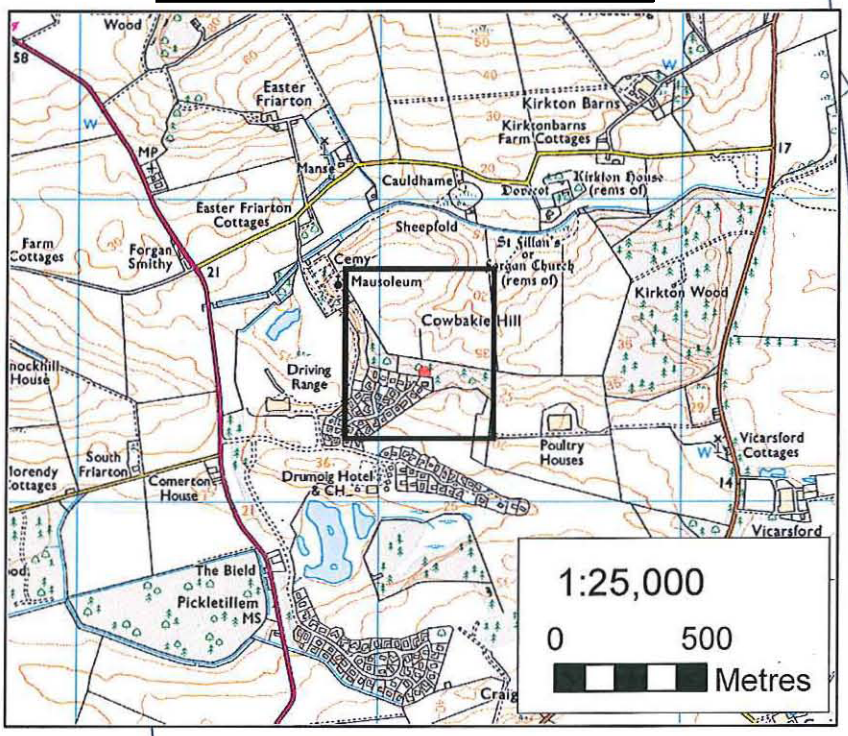

Subscribed by Olwyn A Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 4th day of March Two thousand and fourteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
