THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 7195
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Drumtenant, enclosures 720m W of comprises a group of ditched enclosures probably representing a series of buildings, a yard and a prehistoric barrow. The features are visible as cropmarks on oblique aerial photographs and lie buried below the ploughsoil. The remains include an oval structure measuring about 10m by 7m, an oblong structure measuring about 20m by 6m, a sub-rectangular enclosure measuring 20m by 14m, and a circular feature, 7m in diameter with a central pit, interpreted as a prehistoric barrow. The remains probably derive from an extended period between the Bronze Age and the medieval period (2500 BC to AD 1500). The monument lies about 40m above sea level on ground that is slightly higher than adjacent land to the W and S. The scheduled area is an irregular shape on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them in which evidence for the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of a post-and-wire fence. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Collessie and the County of Fife as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto and which forms part of the subjects registered in the Land Register of Scotland under Title No [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

This entry supersedes the entry in the Schedule of Monuments for the monument known then as Drumtenant, enclosures 650m and 720m WSW of as referred to in the Entry in the Schedule of Monuments by the Secretary of State for Scotland in respect of the monument dated 7 December 1998 and recorded in the General Register of Sasines for the County of Fife on 9 March 1999.

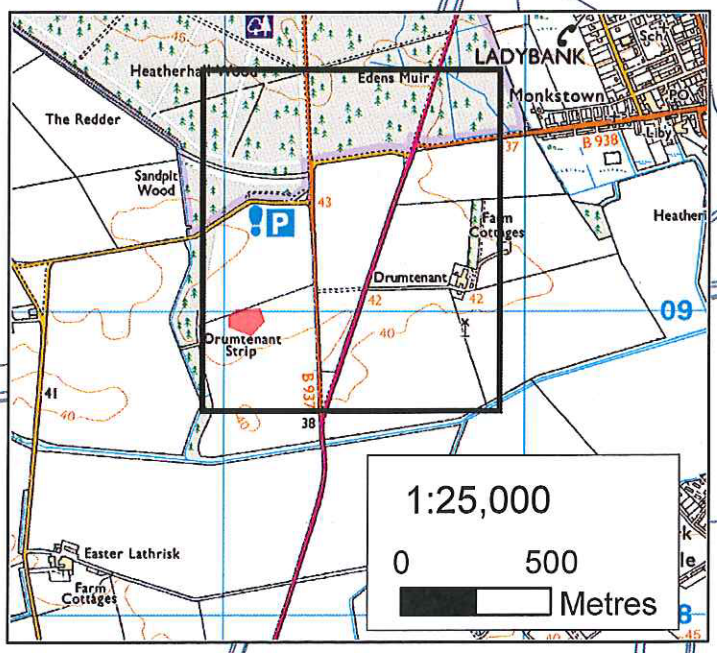

Subscribed by Olwyn Owen, Head of Scheduling, Marine and Battlefields with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 27th day of August Two thousand and thirteen, before this witness Christine Kelly, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
