THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Antonine Wall, Crow Hill to Balmore Road comprises a section of the Antonine Wall which runs from the top of Crow Hill to Balmore Road. The Antonine Wall at this location consists of the rampart, the ditch, the berm (area between rampart and ditch) and the upcast mound. The area to be scheduled measures a maximum of 730m WNW-ESE by a maximum of 305m N-S, to include the Antonine Wall rampart, berm, ditch and upcast mound, the fortlet and temporary camp and an area around these features in which traces of activities associated with the construction and use of the monument may survive. The W edge of the scheduled area is defined by field boundaries on Crow Hill, while the E edge is defined by the W edge of Balmore Road. The S boundary lies 20m beyond the position of the S margin of the rampart, to include Roman-period deposits which are likely to survive in this area, except that towards the E end of the section, the scheduled area expands to include the site of the Roman fortlet and the Roman temporary camp. The N boundary lies 25m N of the N margin of the ditch, to include the upcast mound and an area beyond in which traces of activities associated with the construction and use of the Antonine Wall may survive. The monument, which lies in the Parish of New Kilpatrick and the County of Dumbarton as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.
