THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 7556
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Antonine Wall, fortlet and camp 130m ESE to 930m NE of The Stables comprises a stretch of the Antonine Wall, about 880m long that includes a fortlet, an adjacent Roman temporary camp and what is interpreted as a prehistoric henge. All survive as buried remains that are visible on aerial photographs and located through geophysical survey. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described and an area around them within which related material may be expected to be found. To allow for their maintenance, the scheduling specifically excludes the above-ground elements of all post-and-wire fences and stone walls, and all corrugated-iron outbuildings and stables. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Cadder and the County of Glasgow as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 25 day of JUNE Tow thousand and ten, before this witness Lorna Fairholm, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
