THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Balnabodach, cairns 400m NE of, comprises five large cairns of prehistoric date, and a single small cairn, visible as a series of stony and grassed-covered mounds. Together the cairns represent a linear cemetery dating to the Neolithic and Bronze Age. Each may be expected to contain evidence for burials and related ritual activity, as well as information relating to the prehistoric environment. The area to be scheduled comprises the cairns and an area around them within which evidence relating to their construction and use may survive. It is an elongated and distorted rectangle in shape, measuring 180m from its easternmost point to its westernmost point and 55m from its north side to its south side. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Blair Atholl and the County of Perth as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be of national importance compiled and maintained by him under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland.
