THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979 8207
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Antonine Wall, 495m WSW and 125m SE of Bonnyside House comprises a stretch of the Antonine Wall, which survives as the visible earthworks of the outer mound, ditch, berm and rampart. Approximately 580m in length, this stretch of the Antonine Wall runs from a point 495m WSW of Bonnyside House across open pasture north of Elf Hill, and through the wooded grounds of Bonnyside House to a boundary 125m south-east of this property. The section of Military Way runs in a straight line for approximately 130m from the foot of Elf Hill on the N shore of a large pond known as St Helen's Loch to the access road to Rough Castle. The area to be scheduled is irregular on plan, to include the remains described and an area around within which related remains may be expected to survive. The scheduling specifically excludes the access road to Rough Castle and the above-ground elements of all post-and-wire fences, field gates and boundary walls and fences, to allow for their maintenance. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Falkirk and the County of Stirling as shown in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted], is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Malcolm Cooper, Chief Inspector with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 26 day of novemb Two thousand and nine, before this witness Mairi H Davies, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
