THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Strome Castle comprises the remains of a castle consisting principally of a tower and a large hall. The area to be scheduled comprises the site of the castle, an area around it whose archaeology may retain information relating to the construction, use and destruction of the castle, and the location of fragments of masonry dislodged by the 1602 explosion. The area is defined to the W by the high water mark, to the N by the fence line, to the E by the retaining wall and modern steps and to the S by a line defined by the wall of the garden of Strome House. The boundary features used to define the area are not included in the scheduling. The area is irregular in shape measuring about 80m N-S by 80m E-W at its greatest extremities. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Lochcarron and the County of Ross and Cromarty as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Frank James Lawrie, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 21st day of January Two thousand, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
