THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Cult Hill, fort 460m NNE of North Cult comprises a hill fort of late prehistoric date, visible as turf-covered wall footings. The monument lies in an area of rough grazing, occupying a rocky knoll on the northern spur of Cult Hill at a height of around 255m OD. It is sub-circular in shape with a band of turfed-over walling. Beyond this inner circuit of walling, there are traces of at least one and possibly two additional ramparts. The monument represents the remains of a defended settlement site or hillfort, probably dating to the Iron Age. The area to be scheduled includes the visible extent of the remains described and an area around them in which related material may be expected to be found. It is circular, measuring 155m in diameter. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Saline and the County of Fife as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto [redacted] is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Frank James Lawrie, Director of Heritage Policy with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 16th day of July Two thousand and one, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
