THE ANCIENT MONUMENTS AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREAS ACT 1979
ENTRY IN THE SCHEDULE OF MONUMENTS

The monument known as Perth, Cromwell's Citadel comprises the site of an artillery fort and barrack built for Cromwell's Troops in Scotland, which was started in 1652. The monument takes the form of a rectangular enclosure enclosed by revetted earthen ramparts, with angle bastions, and surrounded by a ditch. The area to be scheduled consists of a quadrilateral with maximum dimensions of about 225m E-W and about 180m N-S, from which the Edinburgh Road and its footpath are excluded. Also excluded are all modern buildings on the site and the top 30 centimetres of the car park occupying part of the area together with all underground services as existing and as declared by Perth and Kinross Council at the date of the scheduling. The monument, which lies in the Parish of Perth and the County of Perth as shown outlined in red on the Plan annexed and executed as relative hereto is hereby included in the Schedule of Monuments appearing to the Scottish Ministers to be of national importance compiled and maintained by them under section 1(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979.

Subscribed by Owen Kelly, Director, Properties in Care with Historic Scotland, being an officer of the Scottish Ministers at Edinburgh on the 14th day of February Two thousand and two, before this witness Lesley Macdonald, of Longmore House, Salisbury Place, Edinburgh.
